SNITE WEDS IN 'IRON LUNG'

Quest Ended—Her quest for adventure and movie fame ended, pretty 17-year-old Ruth Frances Dunn, Miami high school girl, today was found shot and stabbed to death in a Boca Raton, Fla., swamp. Her girl companion was found safe. Police said Charles R. Jefferson, fake movie "talent scout" confessed.

Probability of a compromise one-cent a gallon added tax on gasoline loomed today as a sharply divided Legislature continued consideration of Governor Saltonstall's emergency revenue measures through which he sought an original $50,000,000 in new revenues.

Such a tax would mean that every motorist will pay a 4-cent state tax, and a 1-cent federal tax. Estimated revenue from this new levy is expected to be approximately $6,000,000 a year.

This, added to a total of more than $23,000,000 in new taxes voted yesterday, and upheld today, leaves the governor's program still short almost $20,000,000 of its original goal.

Only other major measure submitted for immediate action calls for an increase of from 1½ to 2½ per cent in income taxes.

This seemed doomed to defeat.

At long last, after more than a week of wrangling the joint legislative taxation committee reported out on a compromise bill, intended to raise more than $450,000 in new revenue by an increase in the state's return from dog racing.

BOOST TRACK LEVY

The new bill provides for the state to take 4 per cent of the first $75,000 of the dog track "handle"—

WAIT HITLER COUP TONIGHT IN DANZIG

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, Aug. 10 (AP)—Danzig was keyed to a high pitch today as Nazis awaited District Leader Albert Forster's word from Adolf Hitler at a mass meeting planned as a "great protest demonstration" tonight against Polish claims to Danzig.

Speculation on what message Forster would deliver ran along three lines, but no one besides Hitler and Forster could say which was right.

The most conservative and generally accepted view was that the district leader, with Hitler's backing, would confine himself to rejecting in most positive terms any claims of Poland to Danzig and the demand of part of the Polish press for annexing East Prussia.

THREAT TO SHELL CITY

An editorial in the Polish newspaper, Czas, which Nazis interpreted as a threat to shell Danzig if the Free City continued to seek reunion with Germany, was especially singled out in the advance publicity on Forster's speech.

(On Monday the newspaper said: "The guns of the Polish army are facing Danzig, should authorities of the Free City not abandon in time the dangerous road they are following on orders from the outside.")

That this utterance would be assailed by Forster would be taken for granted.

MAY CHALLENGE POLES

A more radical view was that Forster would attempt to create a fait accompli (accomplished fact) by announcing that Danzig had established a customs and monetary union with Germany, severing her economic connection with Poland.

The most extreme view was that he would proclaim political union with Germany. This would be such a challenge, holders of this view said, that Poland either would have to confess she had been bluffing or carry out the threat to shoot.

In the latter case, they said, Poland would stand before the world as the aggressor.

From the Berlin propaganda ministry came word that Forster's speech would be broadcast only by the Danzig radio station.

BULLETIN

BERLIN, Aug. 10 (AP)—Italian and German foreign ministers, Count Ciano and Joachim von Ribbentrop, will meet soon at Salzburg, Germany, it was announced today, "to consider the questions of common policy of the allied (axis) countries."

See Cigarette Bootlegging in New Tax Sept. 1

Cigarette taxes are scheduled to go into effect Sept. 1, according to plans of Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long.

On that date all who smoke cigarettes will start paying an additional 2 cents a package, which, at the rate of a package a day, is $7.30 a year. Samuel Silverman, counsel for tobacconists and drugstores, predicted today that the tax "will be a disappointment."

"There will be wholesale bootlegging," he stated, "and without a stamp provision the law will be difficult to enforce. There isn't any profit in cigarettes, anyway."

N. H. HOTEL BURNS

AMHERST, N. H., Aug. 10 (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Point of Pines hotel at Lake Baboosic today with a loss estimated at $10,000. Four guests fled in their night clothing.

NEW INDICTMENTS IN PETZOLD PROBE

Three new indictments were returned today by the Suffolk County Grand Jury as it continued its inquiry into the alleged "robbery ring" revealed by Paul A. Petzold, former Boston patrolman.

Petzold and four others, indicted yesterday in connection with the $2100 robbery of the S. S. Pierce Co.'s Copley sq. store, were all named in the new indictments.

Guy Marcucella

Named with them in one of the indictments was Guy Marcucella, of Meridian st., East Boston, arrested in a dramatic interlude in the proceedings yesterday as he waited to testify before the grand jury.

CONVICTS INDICTED

Others named in the indictment in addition to him and Petzold are William Gillar, Chelsea; Frank Williams, Revere; Nicholas Gerlgiry, Revere, and Albert Abrahms, Chelsea.

All are convicts, Abrahms in the House of Correction, the others in State Prison.

The six are charged with conspiracy to steal $200 from Julius Kalman, Brighton rent collector, on March 1, 1938. Kalman was a witness before the jury.

The other two indictments, in which all but Marcucella were

WARN FLORIDA COAST OF TROPICAL STORM

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 10 (AP)—The weather bureau warned the Bahama Islands and the southeast Florida coast areas today that a tropical storm of moderate intensity was moving in their direction.

Forecasters said the storm was central at 7 a. m., eastern standard time, about 450 miles east-southeast of Miami, Fla., and moving west-northwestward about 12 miles an hour into the southeastern Bahama islands.

The disturbance had increased from slight to moderate intensity but the highest winds so far reported were 45 to 50 miles an hour.

"If the present movement continues," the weather bureau said, "the center will pass near Watling island this afternoon and reach the vicinity of Nassau early Friday morning.

"Caution is advised all interests over the Bahamas today and tonight and on the southeast Florida coast late tonight and Friday."

Snite Weds Heiress In His 'Iron Lung'

CHICAGO, Aug. 10—Courageous young Fred Snite, Jr., who has been fighting for life in an "iron lung" for three years, was married today.

The smiling 29-year-old infantile paralysis victim who has refused to let the handicap of an artificial respirator interfere with his many activities, took Miss Teressa Larkin, 25, of Dayton, O., for his bride.

The ceremony which united the widely known "iron lung" youth with the Ohio girl was performed in the Snite suburban home in River Forest by Rev. J. W. Morrison of St. Luke's Catholic Church.

WED IN IRON LUNG

Young Snite was in his iron lung as the service was read.

Announcement of the marriage was made by the bridegroom's father, Fred Snite, Sr., who said the young couple planned to take a short trailer trip. Snite has a trailer especially equipped to carry the apparatus necessary to his life.

Attendants for the couple were Terrence J. Dillon and his wife, Mary Loretta, who is yoling Snite's sister. Mary Loretta and Miss Larkin were friends at college and the new Mrs. Snite had been a frequent guest at the Snite home.

More than a score of the couple's friends, the men inwhiteu its and the women in white gowns, were present at the palatial river forest home as the ceremony was performed.

The wedding climaxed what doubtless will long be the most interesting and heart-throbbing love story to grip world attention since King Edward abdicated his throne "for the woman I love"—the American, "Wally" Simpson.

BRIDE IS HEIRESS

Snite was stricken in Peiping, China, March 31, 1936, and brought back to the United States in the 900-pound respirator which has held him since. Several months ago he made a trip to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, in France.

The bride, reported to be the daughter of a wealthy Dayton, O., family, has long been at the side of Snite in his boiler-like prison.

Snite, who uses a mirror to see the people with whom he converses, had talked most with Miss Larkin during his long imprisonment. They have laughed together, and confided constantly in each other.

It was thus that their friendship, no one seemed to know just when, strengthened into love.

Michael Hogan, marriage bureau clerk, who went to the palatial Snite home to issue the license, told of the excitement and happiness of the couple and of Mr. and Mrs. Snite.

The elder Snite telephoned County Clerk Michael Flynn at 8:30 a. m. today to ask that the license be issued. Hogan was dispatched to suburban River Forest.

As Hogan entered the Snite home, he saw a pretty young woman, Miss

Kidnaped But Escaped Death

JEAN BOLTON, 16, OF MIAMI, FLA.

Movie Fame Bid Ends in Death for Her Friend

BEAUTY IS SLAIN BY 'TALENT SCOUT'

BOCA RATON, Fla., Aug. 10 (AP)—A high school girl's quest for movie fame ended in death and the arrest of a 34-year-old professed "talent scout" on a murder charge today. Police say he confessed.

Shot and stabbed, the body of pretty 17-year-old Ruth Frances Dunn was found in a swamp 600 feet from a little beach cabin two miles north of Boca Raton.

Blond Jean Bolton, 19, who left Miami Monday with Ruth Frances and a man giving the name of Charles E. Jefferson, ostensibly to go to Palm Beach for a movie test, was released from the cottage where she said she had been held prisoner.

Found walking along a beach road at daybreak, Jefferson was arrested and placed in West Palm Beach jail. He was unarmed.

Lieut. E. W. Melchen of Miami detectives announced the confession at the Boca Raton police station, where Jefferson was held after his arrest near the scene of the slaying.

CONFESSES GIRL ATTACK

Melchen reported both girls were found in the man's automobile which he drove into a lonely beach section about 600 feet off the ocean highway between Miami and West Palm Beach.

Jefferson admitted attacking Miss Dunn Monday night, the detective lieutenant state.

"He said he killed her because she cried for help and became hysterical despite his warning that they were to remain quiet," Melchen reported.

"EGOIST" OF ALIASES

Melchen described Jefferson as an "adventurous egoist" who masqueraded under numerous aliases.

297 Jews Reach Haifa in Lifeboats

JERUSALEM, Aug. 10 (AP)—A group of 297 Jews arrived in Haifa harbor in large lifeboats today and were detained by authorities as illegal immigrants.

The Jews were believed by police to have been transferred to the lifeboats off shore by a Greek ship for which British patrols had searched for three days.

First Paralysis Case Reported

The first case of infantile paralysis in Boston this year was reported to health authorities today when Zelda Applebaum, six, of Waumbeck st., Roxbury, was taken to Children's Hospital for treatment.

At the same time Dr. Frederick J. Bailey, acting health commissioner, issued a warning to parents to be watchful for symptoms of the malady and report them at once to a physician.

Children affected by the disease, he said, usually complain of headache and show signs of fever and some nausea. Later, he said, they are affected by stiffness of the neck and limbs.

Immediate detection of symptoms, he said, can offset paralysis if serum is administered promptly.

AFL HEADS WARN OF STAGE STRIKE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 10 (INS)—"Somebody has got to yield today or every stage and screen in America will be dark," American Federation of Labor officials prophesied prior to the opening of a hearing into the organization fight between the performers' unions and the stage hands' union.

Executive councilmen wereasked: "Suppose the the Screen Actors' Guild or any of the other affiliates of the Actors and Artists of America get an adverse decision here and pull out of the A. F. of L., what would happen?"

Refusing to be quoted by name, their composite answer was:

"It wouldn't work. Whether the actors went as independents or as units of the CIO, the stage still depends on A. F. of L. stagehands and the screen on A. F. of L. projectionists and they would refuse to work with the secessionists."

WARNS OF STRIKE

One official said:

"The A. F. of L. system is that an affiliate union must play ball. Even if a decision is against it that decision has to be taken with the best possible grace.

"The strength of the A. F. of L., is in unity and unity cannot be sacrificed."

Dozens of ranking performers of show business were in Atlantic City as the hearing opened.

Hollywood sent Ralph Morgan, Binnie Barnes, Lucille Gleason, Wayne Morris, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Henry Hull and Larry Steers to protest, in the name of the Screen Actors' Guild, the granting of a charter by the Stagehands Union to the American Federation of Actors.

Broadway sent Frank Gilmore, Tallulah Bankhead, Frederic March, Lawrence Tibbett, Jascha Heifetz and Miriam Hopkins to add their voices to the protest for the Associated Artists and Artistes of America, parent organization of the various performer unions.

SOPHIE LEADS REBELS

In the opposition camp were Sophie Tucker, Harry Richman and Ralph Whitehead for the rebel actors' federation, and George E. Browne, president of the stagehands and really the key man of the situation.

He is the key man because the issue—the only issue according to William Green, head of A. F. of L.—is whether or not Browne's union is guilty of "raiding" by granting a charter to the Tucker group.

"The stagehands never applied to the A. F. of L. for jurisdiction over these workers," Green asserted.

100 Million U. S. Air War Bids Let

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—The War Department threw the expansion of Army air forces into high gear today with an award of contracts totaling $80,978,000 for aircraft and engines.

Louis Johnson, acting secretary of war, said they represented the largest peace-time arms orders.

Including equipment which will be provided by the government for which separate contracts are to be let, more than $100,000,000 was represented, the War Department said.

WOMAN TEACHER AND MAN DROWN IN PLYMOUTH POND

PLYMOUTH, Aug. 10—Their bodies only a few feet apart, a young woman school teacher of North Easton and a man friend's brother, also of North Easton, were found drowned today in White Island pond.

STANLEY WHITTEN

LORRAINE DAHLBORG

Victims in the double tragedy were Miss Lorraine Edith Dahlborg, 29, and Stanley Whitten, 32.

Police searched for them all night, after a small outboard motor boat in which they had been riding was discovered grounded, empty, on a beach, with its engine still running.

Active in the search and frantic with anxiety was Paul Whitten, 30, brother of the drowned man and long-time close friend of Miss Dahlborg.

Relatives said today there was an "understanding" between the girl teacher and Paul, although they were not formally engaged.

Miss Dahlborg went yesterday to the Whitten family camp on White Island pond as guest of Paul.

LOST HER BALANCE

Paul said his brother Stanley offered to take the girl for a ride around the pond in the motor boat, a small craft with room only for two persons.

As Paul reconstructed the accident, Miss Dahlborg, sitting in the bow of the boat, must have lost her balance on a turn and have fallen overboard.

Stanley, an experienced swimmer, apparently plunged to her rescue, only to be dragged down with her.

The girl victim's arms were outstretched when she was found, police said, as if she had clung to her would-be rescuer's neck.

Miss Dahlborg was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dahlborg of Jenny Lind st., North Easton. She was a Boston University graduate and had taught commercial subjects for several years at Oliver Ames high school, North Easton.

TAKES SAD HOLIDAY

Stanley Whitten was the son of Mrs. Ada Whitten, a widow, of Spooner street, North Easton. A graduate of Wentworth Institute, Boston, he was employed as a draughtsman in a North Easton manufacturing plant.

He had a holiday yesterday because the plant was closed for the annual employes' outing, held this year at Acushnet park, New Bedford.

Stanley preferred, however, to go to the White Island Pond camp with his brother and Miss Dahlborg.

Paul Whitten teaches in the North Easton junior high school. He once studied for the ministry.

EXPLOSION INJURES WOMAN

A mysterious explosion rocked the home of Timothy Galvin in Landers rd., Wollaston, today, causing a fire which resulted in $2000 in damage.

Mrs. Irene Galvin, alone in the house at the time, suffered burns on the face and hands and was treated at Quincy City Hospital.

Fire officials, investigating the origin of the blast, which shattered several windows in the neighborhood, said it was apparently caused by cleaning fluid.

Foreign Trade Pact Denounced by AFL

Denouncing reciprocal trade pacts with foreign nations as hostile to the interests of American workers, the State Federation of Labor today adopted a unanimous resolution censuring Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, at the federation's 54th annual convention at Hotel Bradford.

Also adopted was a resolution protesting against recommendations submitted by Governor Saltonstall to the Legislature for amendment of the Unemployment Compensation Act.

Walter Cenerazzo, Gloucester delegate of the Sea Food Workers' Union attacked Hull as a Tennessee man who had no interest in the welfare of New England workers.

PERILS JOBS OF 9500

He declared 9500 sea food workers faced loss of employment through gradual decline of the industry as a result of a reciprocal pact with Canada, enabling that nation to undersell New England fishermen in the Boston and New York markets.

In speaking on the resolution condemning the amendment of the Unemployment Compensation Act, Kenneth L. Taylor, secretary-treasurer, declared:

"Labor should defend this great contribution to the welfare of the workers against the well-financed lobby of reactionary employers and should fight against sabotage of the unemployment fund."

ELECT TOMORROW

Pres. Nicholas P. Morrissey and Kenneth L. Taylor legislative agent, were renominated unanimously by the convention to serve again. Elections will be held tomorrow. A sharp battle for vice-president of the Boston district was predicted as William J. Doyle, present incumbent; Harry P. Grages, C. L. U. secretary; Michael J. O'Hare of Somerville C. L. U., Anthony J. De Andrade, Pressmen's International representative, John J. Buckley, business agent of Local 25, Teamsters Union, and John J. Donovan, secretary of Coal Teamsters Union, Local 6, were nominated.

Locate Missing Man--In Jail

SALEM, Aug. 10—The mysterious two-week-old disappearance of Philip Tardiff, 47, of Jefferson ave., Salem, was cleared up today by the missing man in a letter to his elderly mother.

Tardiff explained in the letter that he was in jail in Auburn, Me., on the complaint of a Lewiston waitress.

Relatives had become alarmed when, after Tardiff's arrest July 26 by a man who represented himself as a Lewiston sheriff, they checked and found that the man was unknown there and that Tardiff was not sought by authorities in that city.

But his letter today indicated the sheriff was from neighboring Auburn, Tardiff had been employed in a Lewiston restaurant before he came here to live with his mother.

TROOPS LEAVE FOR WAR GAMES

More than 1000 troops in a convoy of 148 trucks started from Littleton Common today on the long, two-day trek to Plattsburg, N. Y., for large-scale war maneuvers of the National guard.

The guardsmen formed an advance detail, consisting largely of the quartermaster regiment of the 101st Infantry, aviation companies, and engineers, which will prepare the camping area in New York for the main body of Massachusetts troops, due to leave this weekend.

Advance units of from 75 to 100 men left Greater Boston armories to make up the detail at Littleton. Capt. Harold Brown headed the H. Co., of the 101st Quartermaster Corps which "rolled" from Newton Armory.

The advance detail was in command of Colonel Edward T. Ryan of the 101st quartermaster regiment, with Major Francis Kelly as executive officer.

The long line of trucks were scheduled to wind through Groton and Ashby, with a stop at Keene, N. H., for food and fuel. At Bellows Falls, Vt., they are due to meet advance details of the 1st Brigade from the Worcester area. The night stop of the troops will be made at Brandon, Vt.

On Sunday the main troop movement will take place, with 250 trucks going over the road. More than 8000 troops under the command of Brigadier General Roger W. Eckfeldt will leave on 11 trains from North and South Stations and from Worcester and Springfield.

LESLIE HOWARD SUED

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 10 (INS)—Seeking $91,128 damages for alleged breach of contract, United Players Productions, Inc. today had filed suit in Superior Court against Leslie Howard, stage and screen star.

Patrolman Sheehy Found Dead in Bed

Patrolman Maurice P. Sheehy, 39, of St. Stephen street, Back Bay, well known as a traffic officer in Kenmore Square, is dead today.

When Sheehy failed to report for duty, Sergeant Eugene Sullivan went to his home and found him dead in bed, victim of a heart attack.

Link Gang To Lovers' Lane Killing

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 10—Operations of a counterfeiting ring, an arson charge and other elements as startling were linked today in the investigation of the Lovers' Lane murder of 17-year-old Wanda Dworecki, daughter of a Polish Baptist minister, by County Detective Lawrence T. Doran, who cryptically announced:

"We know the man who murdered Miss Dworecki"—then refused to go beyond that statement.

It was learned, however, that a four-state search has been ordered for a former suitor, once a roomer in the Dworecki home.

And, as the investigation widened, it seemed to become more and more apparent that the killing of the girl was, in some manner, linked with a beating she received at the hands of two men some months ago, at which time she was near death.

Rev. Walter Dworecki, her father, known to his parishioners as "Iron Mike" because of the vigor of his sermons, was given a suspended sentence in 1935 in federal court for passing a bogus $5 bill, it was revealed.

A short time before the girl was murdered, seven men and women were held for operating a counterfeiting ring in this locality.

Yesterday Rev. Dworecki and County Detective Doran went to Chester, Pa., on the investigation, and, it was learned, Doran was there told that the minister and a man booked as Anton Prilipka are at liberty on bail on a charge of arson.

The charge, it was said by Fire Chief Thomas Canavan of Chester, centers around the burning of a house in Chester last March, and the two were arrested on warrants obtained by County Detective Thomas C. Berry of Delaware County, Pa., and W. Harold Leap, representative of a Philadelphia insurance company.

Rev. Dworecki voluntarily produced insurance policies on the girl's life totaling $12,695—all but $250 of which name him as beneficiary.

One is for $10,000 in case of accidental death.

WAS JACK BENNY'S FACE RED?

By Leonard Lyons

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—When Jack Benny made his recent flying trip to N. Y., he went to the Friars' Club with Goodman Ace and Jesse Block. After they went to see the film at the Palace. The men promised to wait for them outside after the movie was over. At midnight, when the ladies failed to appear, the henpecked husbands asked the manager for permission to go inside, and find their wives. Permission was granted, and so they entered the Palace and found their wives sobbing and advising: "It's such a swell picture, you should see it. There's a midnight show"... Benny, Ace and Block seated themselves while the film was unreeled, and sat there observing the movie. The picture was half over, when suddenly the lights went up, and the manager tapped the shoulders of the three stars. "Wise guys—so you just wanted to see your wives, eh?"... The stars looked around the theater. They were the only customers in the place.

TRIUMPH—Buster Keaton's current film contract bars personal appearances at cafe shows. Keaton, accompanied by his manager, visited a night club and was introduced from the floor. "Applaud, folks," the master of ceremonies urged, "and you'll get him up here to do something"... "We're sorry," Keaton's manager informed, "but his contract doesn't allow it."

BUSTER KEATON

The sad-faced comic then decided to show his independence and throw off restraining hands. "Yeah? I'll show 'em Contract my eye". Experienced he went through the violent routines of his snake-dance act, concluded with a solid flop on his face and was rushed to a hospital where four stitches were taken in his forehead. "That's terrible," his manager groaned. Keaton raised his right arm, and said: "You think that's something? Look at this—broken the same way last year.

YOUTH—Two movie [illegible] new talent. An applicant came to [illegible] himself announced as "Captain Mann. I'm a juvenile." He was told to come upstairs, and give an audition... Captain Mann proved to be somewhat immature as to years. His age: "24," he informed. "Twenty-three—and a Captain already?" the scouts asked. "What are you captain of?"..."I'm Captain," he proudly replied, "of the ushers at the Oriental."

MONEY TO LOAN

NOW! A NEW LOAN PLAN

Pick your own monthly repayment

You can borrow from $50 to $300 without asking others to sign with you. Depending on your budget, you may repay in convenient monthly amounts as your income permits. Below is a table showing some of the arrangements we offer. Other amounts and other plans are available. You have as many as 20 months to repay your loan in a very few months to keep the cost to a minimum. Here is what small payments can be made if you wish.

Amount of monthly payments, including all charges for the following periods

Cash You Get	3 mos.	6 mos.	9 mos.	10 mos.	12 mos.	16 mos.	20 mos.
$ 50	$ 17.94	$ 9.08	$ 6.97	$ 5.71	$ 4.87
100	35.88	18.15	13.93	11.43	9.75	$ 7.66	$ 6.41
150	53.82	27.23	20.90	17.14	14.62	11.49	9.62
200	71.77	36.31	27.89	22.85	19.50	15.32	12.83
300	107.65	54.46	41.84	34.28	29.25	22.98	19.24

Payments can be made at any time in advance of the due date to reduce the cost. Interest is computed on the unpaid balance of the loan. Payments are calculated as nearly as possible to the nearest dollar.

AUSTEN LAKE

Peter Astra Wins Classic at Goshen

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 10.

IN MY MODEST OPINION, THE PURE, urban beauties of Goshen or Hambletonian Day bespeaks the typical American Sport scene more than the Kentucky Derby, the World Series, the Yale-Harvard game or a championship prize fight. Goshen preserves the perfume of the 19th century, before we went streamlined — its Reuben Gluecks, city slickers and the intermediate life where Perkins Corners touches fingers with Times Square.

AUSTEN LAKE

At Goshen, one day each year, 30,000 strangers unload in its drowsy and cordinal purlieus—by train, buckboard, buggy or slinky foreign motors. The town's wide main street is lined with time-stained brick homes and green, close-cropped lawns. Grandfatherly elms bend down the leafy arms in enternal blessings. Time hangs suspended! Sanity and the quiet homilies of American rural life rule!

The genesis of Goshen took generations of collaboration between a patient people and contented nature. Goshen grew by accidental glory! The town huddles together like old wives leaning to gossip and beyond the town the landscape falls away in ornamental vistas. Roosters crow! Elders whittle! Hounds doze!

THE LONG YEARS BUILT GOSHEN. Time tinted it. Nature prettied it! And man came to dwell as the good earth [illegible] made the horse his utilitarian partner in the open fields. Man bred the horse for perfection and gradually began racing it for fun. And so, into being came the Good Time track, a triangular course laid in the meadows amid the haycocks and against a background of the far-tumbled Catskills.

The Hambletonian did not come to Goshen until 1936, when a wealthy resident named W. H. Cane built it. Before that the Goshen grand circuit meeting played to a few thousand who gathered under its long stand or hung from neighboring haymows. But today 30,000 [illegible] Ladies' Aid and the Missionary Guild dispense solid [illegible] moderate prices. Taverns of timbered stucco sell [illegible] October [illegible].

HANDBOOK MAKERS SHOUT THEIR ODDS and exchange pencilled memoranda for fresh cash. Auctioneers mumble the pool prices on the various horses. Mammas with pigtailed daughters tallyho over from nearby estates and spread picnic lunches from wicker hampers. Sodbusters with sun creases on their necks rattle to town in ancient buggies.

Grizzled old geezers and apple cheeked kids! Shaggy yokels and Broadway smoothies! John Cornstassel and Shek Silk—a cross section of middle America who have come to worship the horse more for its silky coat and the patrician arch of its neck than the stretch of its elastic legs and the profits to be made therefrom.

The Hambletonian, removed anywhere else than Goshen might be as good, but the illusion would be gone. The aroma of the country fair, the honest sod-tillers in their Sabbath best having a year's fun if it costs them every dime of $3.65; the city wise-men risking tonsured lungs from breathing pure country oxygen and more at home than they would wish to admit—all would be absent or miscast in a more stilted setting.

For the Hambletonian, like the Kentucky Derby, is an excuse for a high-low holiday and its few minutes of racing is secondary to the human scene, amid rustic settings, the sight of luscious town lasses selling root beer to farm folk who make their Adam's apples bob at every gulp; the low humpbacked grandstand crowded with homespun families munching shoe-box lunches; the elbow rubbers of patrician and peasant stock, both grand and humble; the reek of harness oil, fresh-sawed pine and the blended fragrance of fresh furrowed earth and early August. Goshen and the Hambletonian, chicken and waffles, sunshine and roses, Scotch and Soda!

THERE IS NO TOTALIZATOR BOARD winking its electric odds from the infield, enticing the people to gamble. No basement wickets with invitations to spend from 2 to 50 dollars. The long low grandstand with its humpbacked roof was filled with homespun people and goggle-eyed grand-kids holding forth in kindly cordiality and with less of the squinty-eyed mystery than one finds in the running horse tracks.

Peter Astra, with his hair in a braid and tail in a cruller pucker was never headed and minced daintily in front for the full length in the first two heats. Doc Hush Durshall, trainer, driver, kept the left wheel of his flimsy gig on the white rail and steered his sleek stallion as placidly as the pilot of a tug boat. It looked as simple as that!

I suppose the flat-race addicts, who like to see the little monkey men perched over the ears of their animals with their silks ballooning and hitting lusty licks with their leather bats wouldn't have felt the same nervous hysteria from Peter Astra's victory as comes with watching a close-packed cloud of galloping nags sweep down the stretch. But after it was over Peter A. with goggled and black shirted driver in his two wheeled perambulator, came back to the judge's pavilion to collect a two-gallon silver bucket and a bank draft for $19,604.

The rest of the rival drivers, some of them elderly codgers, bent and sun parched from years of the sport, puttered polite applause. And the 30,000 crowd oozed toward the exits in the late, slanting shadows of the afternoon, voting it a happy holiday.

Goshen yawned pleasantly and went back to sleep for another year!

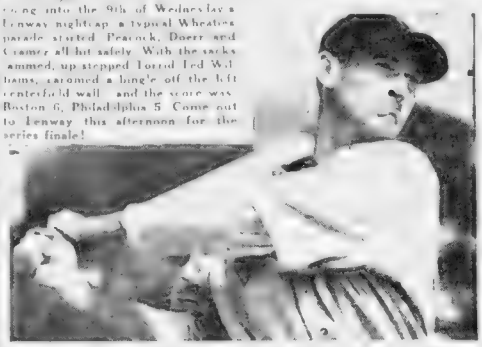
Ted's Hit in 9th Ices Double Win!

With your Boston 3 run behind going into the 9th of Wednesday's Fenway nightcap a typical Wheaties parade started. Peacock, Doerr and Cramer all hit safely. With the sacks jammed, up stepped Lorrid Ted Williams, caromed a bingle off the left centerfield wall and the score was Boston 6, Philadelphia 5. Come out to Fenway this afternoon for the series finale!



End of another homerun story: Boston's new favorite has just parked a titanic wallop into Fenway's righfield stands. A natural, easy batter, this freshman Redsocker goes about his clouting chores in workmanlike fashion, tops both leagues in runs batted in. Ted's batting average over a "breakfast of champions" is tops, too!

With Doc Cramer and Joe Vosmik, Ted Williams makes the Red Sox outfield unanimous for what's inside that big orange and blue package. Though still a rookie, Ted eats Wheaties regularly, like many a major league veteran. "I'm a full-time booster," says Ted, "for that champion cereal, Wheaties!" Order some of those crisp toasted whole wheat flakes for your breakfast tomorrow. Tell your grocer to include Wheaties in your order today!

Red Sox Power Offsets Pitching | Bees Lose Tenth Game by One Run

The Red Sox power offset some mediocre pitching yesterday and now the Croninmen are only six and one half games behind the Yankees . . . Although the starting pitchers let them down in both games, the Red Sox came from behind and took both ends of the twin bill from the Athletics.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10—Manager Casey Stengel is trying to keep an even keel. And little wonder, after losing 10 games on the most disastrous trip the Bees ever made. The Bostonians have lost 10 games by one-run decisions, which is more than enough to upset any leader of a major league team.

LIGHT-HEAVY CHAMPION JUST 'SISSY' TO FAMILY

LEIPERVILLE, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—The world may regard young Billy Conn as something of a fighter, but at home the light heavyweight champ is virtually the "sissy" of the family.

Billy, training here for his 10-round bout with Heavyweight Gus Dorazio in Philadelphia next Monday night, admitted as much himself today.

The 21-year-old scrapper from Pittsburgh declared his brother, Jackie, 17, "picks on me" all the time.

"I'm too big and experienced for him to give him a trouncing every time," Billy grinned, "but he's never stopped trying to show me up."

OLD MAN "TOUCHY"

Billy never puts up his fists unless he's paid for it—but his father and two brothers don't wait for a money offer.

"The old man (William David Conn, Sr., is only 41) is awful touchy," Billy explained, "and he'll start swinging if he doesn't like the way a fellow talks or looks.

"Frankie, who's a year younger than I, is built the same way as pop. He doesn't care for professional boxing and drives a truck.

"But many's the battle he's fought with some stranger who didn't agree with him that I was going to win the heavyweight championship some time."

Even at home the Conn pugnacious temperament is constantly flaring up.

"There's pretty nearly always a scrap around the house," said Billy. "It's tough for mom to keep order, but she's so used to it by this time she'd feel lonesome without all the rumpus."

Frankie can't leave his job in Pittsburgh, but the "old man" and Jackie will be at the ringside Monday night.

So perhaps Billy said he would not bet against it—there might be a little unscheduled scrapping too.

LOU NOVA DOLPH CAMILLI BILLY CONN

COMING EVENTS—Maybe this is prophetic, with Lou Nova, left, heavyweight contender, facing Billy Conn, right, young lightweight champ. Conn, growing, may reach heavyweight stature in a couple of years. Referee in the middle is Dolph Camilli, Dodgers first baseman. Camilli is a brother of the late Frank Campbell who died after a bout with Max Baer.

Delaney to Play For All-Stars

Four more All-Star names were added to the Crosscup-Pishon roster today, with the signing of Joe Delaney, Holy Cross guard; Sid Roth, Cornell guard; John Siegal, Columbia end, and Jerry Holland, Cornell end.

Swede Nelson now has eight more starters against the Washington Redskins, in the big All-Star-Redskins game which will be played at Fenway Park on the evening of Monday, Sept. 11.

Assisting Swede in gathering the cream of the past season's college gridiron heroes are Lou Little and Tuss McLaughry, which makes no mean coaching staff for the local All-Star aggregation.

Jerry Holland, the big Cornell end, he's six-foot-one, weighs 205 pounds and is 23 years old, should have particular appeal for local grid fans. He featured that spectacular end-around play that spelled doom for Cornell opponents last year. Dartmouth went down to defeat before the Big Red, due mostly to Holland and that particular play.

Hank Plans Ocean Trip To Rest Tired Nerves

DETROIT, Aug. 10 (AP)—A case of "nerves" has Hank Greenberg singing the blues, but leave it to the studious Detroit Tiger first baseman to get after the problem.

Greenberg plans an ocean trip to start when this baseball season ends—to get fit for 1940.

It sounds queer for a .300 hitter, with 20 home runs, to complain, but Hank is dissatisfied with himself.

"I got myself into a jam," he confided. "When I got into a slump I began to fret and lose sleep, and this sapped my strength.

"This is the time of year I usually hit at my best, but I'm not at the peak of my strength and, naturally, I don't have the power I usually have.

"When the season ends," Hank went on, "I hope to take an ocean cruise. I'll do nothing but rest my nerves and try to get them back to normal.

"When I return from the cruise, I hope to be in good shape and to stay that way until the season gets under way."

HOLYOKE REOPENS AUG. 21

HOLYOKE, Aug. 10 (INS)—Featuring nationally known boxers, the Valley Arena opens the local boxing season with the first of its weekly programs, August 21.

Meet Hack Wilson—M. C.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10 (AP)—Hack Wilson, National League home run king of a decade ago, has turned night club impresario.

The pudgy former Chicago Cubs outfielder, now five years out of the major league, has staked his future in the dine and dance business, which he calls "the toughest racket in the world."

Nightly the thick shouldered former star who smashed 56 homers in 1930 stands before the portals of the Hack Wilson Home Run Club in suburban Niles, extending the glad hand to the patrons.

The years since he was tops in the National League may have dimmed his batting eye but they have added color to his personality.

As master of ceremonies—in addition to assistant bartender and aide to his dice game girl—Hack entertains the crowd with baseball anecdotes.

A little abashed as first, Hack stepped into the spotlight last night and sparkled with charm. He wise-cracked about his own feats in baseball; he blushed; he smiled, and he won the hearts of the customers with his wit and ready good humor.

Swifty SAYS:

They've got me in a REVERE COURSE tonight that looks like a thriller. Tomorrow I've got to go in another World Series Race against Rural Rube and Cherokee Stroller. There's plenty of big doings for me every night.

CHAMPION TROTS TO THRONE—Winning the second heat of the Hambletonian in this Goshen, N. Y., scene is Peter Astra, piloted by Doc Parshall. The great trotter took the classic easily, and added $40,502 to its bankroll.

European Market Bids $37,500 for Peter Astra

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 10 (INS)—The greatness of sleek, little Peter Astra, winner of the Hambletonian, is still something for history to determine, but his price is already set.

Dr. Lowry M. Gullinger, the 70-year-old horse-and-buggy doctor from Andover, O., has had two offers for the year's three-year-old champion. The latest, he revealed, was $37,500 from "a European market."

WANTS U. S. BID

Dr. Gullinger, a short, plump, spruce gentleman, revealed the offer, but refused to name the exact source. It was not "the right price," he implied.

"If the right price comes along," he said, "I might weaken and let him go across the Atlantic, but my inclination is to let him go for a lesser figure if an American stud farm makes a reasonably satisfactory proposition.

"I'm an American doctor, and I'd like to see Peter Astra remain in America. He's a wonderfully bred colt, and he would be valuable in perpetuating the blood strain of this soil.

"I would prefer to see Peter Astra go into stud at a place like Hanover Farms in Pennsylvania or Walnut Hall Farm down in Donerail, Ky., but I am in no hurry to get rid of him.

"I only mention these thoughts because I had an offer of about $35,000 about a month ago when it became apparent he was going to win the Hambletonian and now this new bid of $37,500."

$45,000 IN EARNINGS

The European offer is not surprising. Four past Hambletonian winners went abroad to Italy and Germany—Walter Dear in 1929, Calumet Butler in 1931, The Marchioness in 1932 and McLin Hanover a year ago.

Peter Astra's proved earning power has been sufficient justification for the price named.

The $21,341.35 first place money won by Peter Astra with his two straight mile heats in 2:03¼ and 2:04¼ under wraps brought his total lifetime earnings above the $45,000 mark.

Have You an ULCER?

A stomach ulcer is a sore that eats into the stomach, usually causing a gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach. In treating ulcers, the first requirement is a good blood diet. Drink milk with STAMINA, and take SORBEX tablets to counteract acidity and help build up a barrier against acid erosion.

FREE Call at once for free samples of STAMINA in milk and SORBEX tablets.

Also free diet advice and free circulars.

SABIN LACKS PARTNER

Wayne Sabin is a "man without a partner" in the 58th national doubles championship, that begins Sunday at Longwood Cricket Club's courts at Chestnut Hill, but he has entered the mixed doubles with Helen Jacobs, the famous International from California.

The mixed doubles field already contains nine pairs that include at least one foreign player, this group being:

Alice Marble, California (co-holder) and Harry Hopman, Australia.

Mrs. Freda James Hammersley, England and Ladislaw Hecht, Czechslovakia.

Betty Nuthall, England and Jack Crawford, Australia.

Kay Stammers, England and Bobby Riggs, Chicago.

Mary Hardwick and Charles Hare, both of England.

Valerie Scott, England and Gardnar Mulloy, Florida.

Nina Brown, England and Frank Guernsey, Florida.

Miss Nydes, Greece and W. Robertson, Calif.

Mme. Simone Mathieu, France and John Bromwich, Australia.

With the Cuban and Philippine Davis Cup players entered, and with France's Jacques Brugnon and Bernard Destremau booked to compete, there are certain to be more international combinations.

Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, who won the U. S. mixed doubles title with Fred Perry of England in 1932, with Enrique Maier of Spain in 1935 and with Don Budge in 1937, has not yet named her 1939 partner.

Thirty-one teams have been named for the men's doubles, which means that the supplementary list of half-a-dozen teams will not be needed to fill the draw, while the present list of 21 women's pairs probably will be enlarged.

The mixed doubles list now numbers 21 teams, including those famous California first cousins Dorothy (Dodo) Bundy and John Hope Doeg; Pat Canning and Bitsy Grant, Virginia Wolfenden and Hal Surface, Dorothy Workman and Don McNeill, W. J. and Carolyn Clothier, Barbara Bradley and Welby Van Horn, Mary Arnold and Jack Kramer.
